

Guru Nanak Dev Engineering College, Ludhiana
Civil Engineering Department

Civil Engineering Department organized two weeks Industry Orientation program from 11/06/2018 to 21/06/2018 for final year students (Batch 2015-2019) who are going for six months industrial training. First day, Er. Gursharan Singh delivered lecture on "How to start building the blocks of life" in auditorium. One session was taken by official of HILTI on "New Equipment & techniques in Civil Engineering" on 13/06/2018 in consultancy seminar hall. Mr. Prashant Sharma (HILTI) talked about the development of new equipment available for construction industry for various works and new techniques for doing the normal routine work with latest technology in easier and accurate way. The official also demonstrated the working of new equipment to students. One session on "Construction Chemicals" was delivered by the Mr. Ashish Vashisht from SIKA on 15/06/2018 in consultancy seminar hall. He talked about the advancement construction chemicals being used in construction industry for various purposes and discussed the application & benefits of chemicals for construction. Er. Ankitpal Singh from DISHA talked about the "Personal development and soft skills". He delivered talk on how to enhance the soft skills which will develop their personality which will be helpful for their placement drives. Other speakers from in-house had delivered talk in their area of interest.

Charnjeet Singh
Coordinator, Training and Placement.
Civil Engineering Department