

Guru Nanak Dev Engineering College, Ludhiana
Civil Engineering Department

Report of Industry Oriented Program

Civil Engineering Department organized two weeks Industry Orientation program from 07/01/2019 to 18/01/2019 for final year students (Batch 2015-2019) who are going for six months industrial training. First day, Dr. Parampal Singh, HoD, MBA, GNDEC, S Jagdev Singh and M S Mann delivered lecture on "Metamorphosis from college to corporate", How to make the best use of Industrial Training and Bursting the sales & marketing myth in auditorium respectively. One session on "Construction Chemicals" was delivered by the Mr. Ashish Vashisht from SIKA on 14/01/2019 in construction industry for various purposes and discussed the application & benefits of chemicals for construction. One session was taken by official of HILTI on "New Equipment & techniques in Civil Engineering" on 16/01/2019 in consultancy seminar hall. Mr. Prashant Sharma (HILTI) talked about the development of new equipment available for construction industry for various works and new techniques for doing the normal routine work with latest technology in easier and accurate way. The official also demonstrated the working of new equipment to students. Various faculty members from the civil engineering department delivered expert talk in their interest of field.

22/01/2019

Charnjeet Singh
Coordinator, Training and Placement.
Civil Engineering Department